

Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V.

WE ARE HIRING

Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V.

✉ Hechtstraße 17, 01097 Dresden
☎ 0351 810 47 66 0176 962 123 47
📅 0351 899 605 44
🌐 www.jkpev.de
✉ info@jkpev.de

Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V., Hechtstraße 17, 01097 Dresden

Job offer

Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V. has been working successfully in the fields of art, culture and education at European and local level for over 15 years. The aim is to implement projects that enable diversity and inclusion and promote active participation and civic engagement. The association's international team is also dedicated to coaching professionals and volunteers in youth and adult education as well as in cultural work across Europe, thereby strengthening interdisciplinary and transnational cooperation. To achieve this goal, the staff design and coordinate training courses, seminars, conferences and events in the fields of digital education, inclusion and integration, entrepreneurship and sustainability, civic participation and volunteering. Different art forms, non-formal learning methods, digital media, gamification and intercultural exchange are used as approaches and tools to develop soft skills and professional skills of the participants, to stimulate their entrepreneurial spirit and creativity, but also to enrich the cultural life of the city of Dresden and to promote diversity. Another focus is on a Europe-wide exchange of experiences and a joint examination of the history and future of Europe.

With their work, the team members of the Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V. aim to promote and actively shape a united Europe. The association supports artists and runs an art gallery (Full Moon Gallery) and also organises music and literature evenings in the specially developed Kultur Centrale.

As several new projects have recently been approved, we are currently looking for a

Project Manager

(f/m/d)

with a workload between 35-40 hours per week

In this position, you will coordinate projects and activities in close cooperation with the management team of the association in the fields of education, culture, arts, and social/youth work. You will be responsible for the coordination and management of EU-funded cooperation projects as well as local, regional, and national projects with a duration of one to three years.

The projects focus on the development of innovative educational concepts and interactive learning formats, including workshop curricula, digital learning platforms and apps, educational materials, manuals, video tutorials, and online tools based on non-formal education approaches.

Another key area of work is the organisation and implementation of educational and multiplier events such as workshops, training courses, conferences, citizens' meetings, art and cultural events.

In addition, you will apply your project management skills to ensure the smooth administrative and financial implementation of projects. You will work with project management and communication tools, coordinate international partnerships and project teams, and ensure that deadlines, reporting obligations, and funding requirements are met efficiently and professionally.

Specific tasks include, but are not limited to:

- Planning, implementing and reporting contracted projects in the areas of migration and integration, youth work, adult and political education, entrepreneurship and sustainability, citizen participation and volunteering. (Project management, controlling, reporting and evaluation, risk analysis, coordinating and monitoring the project team and project partners).
- Measuring, controlling and monitoring progress of project partners
- Implementing quality control and assurance assessments
- Managing partner and stakeholders' relations through effective communication
- Designing, planning, developing and leading interactive workshops, seminars and trainings based on non-formal learning methods addressing youth, adults and professionals (adult trainers, community workers, youth leaders, youth workers etc.)
- Promoting and disseminating JKPeV's projects and their outputs respectively by using different social media channels, the association's website (Wordpress), publishing blogposts and sending Newsletter, Press Release etc. as well as by making presentations in meetings, events and conferences on local, regional, national and international level.
- Research work in different scientific fields (mainly non-formal education, social inclusion and social integration, entrepreneurship and sustainability, civic participation & political education), including field work
- Designing and producing projects' outputs such as WebQuests, podcasts, interactive presentations, handbooks, workbooks, online toolkits based on story-telling methods etc.
- Preparation of academic studies and publications as well as curricula and training material development in English and subsequent translation into German
- Designing Erasmus+ projects, in particular Key Action 2 - Strategic Partnerships and Key Action 3 - Support to Policy Reforms and EU Youth Dialogue, CERV, REC, AMIF, Creative Europe and HORIZON2020 projects

- Maintain and further develop networks with local, governmental and international institutions.

Requirements:

- A university degree relevant to the field of work, preferably in the fields of Education with focus on Adult Education / Social Sciences and Humanities / Political Sciences / Cultural Studies and ideally a master's degree in project management and/or a Certification of Project Management (PMP)
- 5 years of proven professional experience in the implementation and management of EU-funded projects (Funding Programmes: Erasmus+ - KA1, KA2, KA3), CERV, JUSTICE, AMIF, Creative Europe, Interreg, Horizon Europe, EuropeAid etc.) as well as local, regional and national projects (Aktion Mensch, Kulturstiftung des Bundes, Fonds Soziokultur, Deutsche Stiftung für Engagement und Ehrenamt (DSEE), Sächsische Aufbaubank (SAB), Stiftung Erinnerung, Verantwortung und Zukunft (EVZ), Kulturstiftung des Freistaates Sachsen, Landesverband Soziokultur Sachsen, Sächsisches Staatsministerium für Kultus, Amt für Kultur und Denkmalschutz Dresden)
- Efficient and goal-oriented way of working
- Proven professional experience in curricula and learning materials' development and in planning, developing, delivering and leading interactive workshops, seminars and training courses based on non-formal education (Youth, Vocational & Adult Education)
- Excellent written and oral communication skills in German and English, other languages are an advantage
- Demonstrable knowledge and practical experience in social media management, public relations, communication and dissemination strategies, as well as networking and stakeholder engagement
- Excellent Microsoft Office skills (Word, Power Point, Excel, Access), knowledge of Canva, Gamma presentations, Genial.ly, online communication tools for virtual teamwork and Project Management Software tools will be considered a strong asset
- Proven experience in Strategic Planning and Risk Management
- Excellent decision-making and leadership skills with proven experience
- Excellent organizational skills, such as time management, team coordination and supervision
- Team spirit, empathy, reliability, self-motivation, and respect for all members and staff of JKPeV
- Availability to travel domestically and internationally to attend project meetings, trainings and events

What JKPeV offers:

- Collaboration with a long-established non-profit organization based in Dresden, Germany with more than 15 years of experience in EU-funded projects and with a rich network of international partners all over Europe
- A motivated, friendly and professionally competent, multicultural team
- Integration into a cooperation network of various institutions in the field of art, culture and education
- Relocation support if necessary
- Interesting and substantively challenging fields of activity
- Regular travels in Germany and abroad to represent JKPeV and its work in project meetings, conferences, networking meetings and other events
- Initiative to discuss, design and develop together with the JKPeV team innovative projects
- A salary commensurate with the professional experience as well as flexible vacation planning

The place of work is mainly Dresden. Home office is partly possible!

Would you like to implement projects in a competent and dynamic environment together with our project partners on a national and international level? Can you work in a goal-oriented and self-initiated manner while breaking new ground in the European scene? Do you aim to have a social impact on the local community as well as on national and European level?

If so, we look forward to receiving your application (letter of motivation, CV, certificates of work and education, references) including your salary expectations exclusively by e-mail with the subject "Project Manager" to: career@jkpev.de. Please include all documents in one PDF. The size of the PDF should not exceed 10 MB.

If you have any questions about the association, please contact JKPeV's Director, Stefan Kiehne: kiehne@jkpev.de Costs incurred as part of the application process cannot be reimbursed.

For more information about our work, please visit

www.jkpev.de

www.facebook.com/jkpev.de

www.youtube.com/c/jkpev

www.instagram.com/jugend_und_kulturprojekt

www.kultur-centrale.de

www.full-moon-gallery.de